REFLECTION FOR23RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“He took him off by himself away from the crowd. He put his finger into the man’s ears and, spitting, touched his tongue.” Jesus could have healed this deaf man another way. He could have spoken a powerful word or, for that matter, just silently willed that the man’s health be restored. It wasn’t uncommon for Jesus to cure people simply by a quick touch. But instead, Jesus chose to heal him in this unique way.

He made it a private event, one that involved an unusual kind of physical ritual. Clearly, this was not for Jesus’ sake. And since it was away from the crowd, it wasn’t for their sake either. This particular healing was for this particular man. For whatever reason, Jesus knew that this man needed these signs—touching his ears and putting saliva on his tongue—in order to be freed of his inability to hear and speak well. Jesus knows what we need.

His care for each and every one of us is not some standardized package of generic charity. He loves us all as unique individuals and understands us. He sees our weaknesses and knows our strengths. He offers himself to us as an intimate friend, not an unfamiliar acquaintance. When we come to him with our hopes, our fears, our desires and needs, he hears and answers us ... in the way he knows is best. It might seem odd.

It might be unexpected or different from what we have seen him do for others. But we need to trust, even when we are desperate for “healing,” that Jesus does care, that he does listen, and that he does act on our behalf. Let us have confidence in today’s Old Testament proclamation from Isaiah: “Thus says the LORD: Say to those whose hearts are frightened: Be strong, fear not! Here is your God ... he comes to save you.”

PASTOR’S CORNERA Renewed Personal Encounter with Jesus

In his Apostolic Exhortation, The Joy of the Gospel, Pope Francis appeals to all of us to give ourselves to a "renewed personal encounter" with Jesus: I invite all Christians, everywhere, at this very moment, to a renewed personal encounter with Jesus Christ, or at least an openness to letting him encounter them; I ask all of you to do this unfailingly each day. No one should think that this invitation is not meant for him or her, since “no one is excluded from the joy brought by the Lord” Paul VI, Apostolic Exhortation [Gaudete in Domino] The Lord does not disappoint those who take this risk; whenever we take a step towards Jesus, we come to realize that he is already there, waiting for us with open arms. [3] There are four elements to this invitation: 1) it is a renewal, 2) which is personal, 3) which is an encounter, 4) and it with with Jesus.

How is my relationship with Jesus now? For many of us, it is not easy to describe our relationship with Jesus. We might find it easier to describe our relationship with God, in general. We might even acknowledge, that though we celebrate Mass each weekend (or perhaps, daily), receiving the Body and Blood of Jesus in an intimate communion with him, we don't feel or experience a day to day conversational, personal relationship with him.

Asking for the grace of a renewed personal encounter with Jesus: The first grace is a desire - something stirring within us - which is open to this deeper encounter. As Pope Francis says that it can start with an "openness" to letting Jesus encounter me. "Waiting for us with open arms" is a quite comforting image. We can't let our having been away or distant or pre-occupied, or even having been selfish or deeply sinful get in the way of this renewal. The first part of the joy we can long for is the experience - perhaps for the first time in our lives - of being loved mercifully, with compassion and with open arms.

WALK WITH FRANCIS PARISH PLEDGE WEEKEND is this weekend. Celebrate the coming visit of the Holy Father! At Mass this weekend, you will have the opportunity to sign a card to pledge to Walk with Francis and pray, serve, or act in a new way to advance his mission and ministry in the world. We encourage you to pray regularly for the Holy Father and learn about the message of the joy of the Gospel, the mercy of God and the love of Christ. Serve by reaching out and caring for those in need and supporting charitable efforts in our community and beyond. Act to promote human life and dignity, justice and peace, family life and religious freedom, care for creation and the common good. Once you have taken the pledge, challenge family, friends, and co-workers to do the same! Find more information or take the pledge online at WalkwithFrancis.org. Share your pledge on social media and challenge others using #WalkwithFrancis. In today's First Reading we heard Joshua's pledge, "As for me and my household, we will serve the LORD". How will you serve the Lord this week? The best way to welcome Pope Francis is to #WalkwithFrancis!
