IN ORDINARY TIME

"Suppose one of you has a friend to whom he goes at midnight and says, 'Friend, lend me three loaves of bread,' and he says in reply from within, 'Do not bother me.' I tell you, if he does not get up to give the visitor the loaves because of their friendship, he will get up to give him whatever he needs because of his persistence." - Lk 11:5b, 7a, 8

PASTOR'S CORNER

How does the Lord's Prayer benefit my life?

As the writer of this Desiring God article mentions, there are many ways that this guide to prayer from Jesus can benefit us. But there are three benefits that we'll discuss here. First, the Lord's Prayer turns our focus outward. Where prayer can get very "my" focused, with my requests, my issues, and my sins. This guide to prayer turns our focus outward to an awareness of who God is and his control. It pushes us to think about others and the will of God. This fact forces our prayers to go from insular to inclusive.

Second, this framework gives us something to hold on to and come back to when our mind wanders. There are so many distractions in our lives. Children need to get to school. Emails need a thoughtful response. And social media can take our minds off the task at hand – speaking to God. The Lord's Prayer not only keeps us focused, but it can be a bookmark to come back to when our mind goes elsewhere.

Finally, utilizing the Lord's Prayer enables your prayer to have bounds to explore. As mentioned before, Jesus gives us the starting point, but we're able to go as deep as we want at each point along the way. You can have a rich conversation with God praising him for all the wonders that he has done. In the same way, you may have something on your chest or a situation that you need to talk through with God.

A space for confession also provides the opportunity to lay everything at the foot of the cross and thank Jesus for his sacrifice and blood that makes us clean. As you pray, you might be surprised by the depth that is unlocked by not holding anything back from God in each section of the Lord's Prayer.

REFLECTION FOR THE SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Meister Eckhart asks, "Who is the man whose prayers God always hears?" He answers, "God hears the man who appeals to God as God. When, however, man appeals to God, hoping for some worldly good, he is not appealing to God at all, but to what he is asking of God. He is trying to make God his servant. On this point, St. Augustine says: 'You pray to what you love, for true whole prayer is nothing but love!' Thus, we pray to what we love, and no one rightly prays to God but he who prays for God and has nothing on his mind but God." We struggle with what we want God to do and how we want our prayer validated. Meister Eckhart is correct. We often want God to be our servant. We further struggle with trusting that God knows what we need and that His will is best.

God's will is not some predetermined outcome of events that we must simply suggest. "Thy will be done" is not an invocation beckoning us to accept a particular state of affairs passively. Rather, it is the humble and confident placement of ourselves in the presence of the God we seek, whom we call "Father." We must remember that God is the God of life and light. It is from nothing that God brings something and from the darkness that God brings life. Prayer allows us to seek the One we love with the assurance that all will be well regardless of what course the events of our lives take. God is not about passive submission but the humble trust of love.

That's what makes the Lord's Prayer the perfect prayer. It provides us with proper disposition and focus, putting in line all of the essential relationships of our lives. It celebrates and fosters the ever-deepening relationship of trust we have with our Creator. It also calls us to keep open the doors of love between our brothers and sisters with the power that comes with forgiveness. If in one's darkest hour they can find the resolve to fervently pray this perfect prayer of Jesus' conviction, then there is no doubt that God will hear their plea, reach out in love, and bring them ever closer to His heart. What more does one need to weather the storms of life besides faith, hope, and love? These are God's most perfect gifts and all we really need.

Quote of the Day

When a Christian shuns fellowship with other Christians, the devil smiles,
When he stops studying the Bible, the devil laughs. When he stops praying, the devils shouts for joy.
