Welcome

St. Luke is a warm and embracing parish family. We gladly extend our love and warmth to all those who desire to worship and follow our Lord, Jesus Christ. Come join us to celebrate the Holy Eucharist which is the source and summit of our Christian life. Our theme for 2022 is “You, O Lord, protect us always; preserve us from this generation.” [Psalm 12:8] Together we will praise God, love one another and serve each other.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Happy 65th Anniversary to Our Parish

Dear parishioners and friends in Christ. It is with great joy that I write to congratulate us all on the 65th Anniversary of this great parish. St. Luke Catholic Church is a beautiful dream that came into reality in 1957. We are indeed blessed by the almighty and will continue to be a blessing to many in and around our community for many more years to come. Our God is good all the time, and all the time, God is good. May the name of the Lord be praised both now and forever.

We have come a long way bearing our burden in the heat of the sun. We have been privileged to experience abundant joys but have seen our fair share of sorrow. So many men and women, fathers and mothers, sisters and brothers, uncles and aunts, friends, families and well wishers who helped lay the foundation of this church have gone before marked with the sign of faith. Many who joyfully sat on these same pews singing praise to God and receiving the Sacraments of their salvation, are no longer here to celebrate with us. To them, we pray that the eternal Father will welcome them into the banquet feast in heaven— Amen.

For us who are privileged to be here today, I pray that we may never cease to be thankful and grateful to God for the numerous blessings we have received. May we never forget the legacies of our ancestors. But most importantly, may we continue to work in the Lord's vineyard and build our own legacy for years to come. Let us never be tired of doing what is good and pleasing to the Lord.

There is no denying the fact that our parish has become more diverse than it was 65 years ago. This is the work of the Lord and we rejoice with our hands raised to the hill where our help and sustenance come. Our diversity is not a problem to be solved, but a Grace-filled opportunity to testify to the universal nature of the heavenly liturgy that we aspire to be part of at the end of our life here on earth. Psalm 145 reminds us that we will extol you, O our God and King, and we will bless your name forever and ever. Every day will we bless you, and we will praise your name forever and ever...for God is kind and compassionate towards all his works.

How do we endeavor to keep our parish doors open for another 65 years and beyond? This is a relevant question that requires serious attention. Because of the uniqueness of our parish, efforts have to be made to pave way for the younger members to assume responsibility of leading the church. We must intentionally invest our time, talent and treasure to developing them as today's leader. We must let the light of Christ in them to shine forth. This doesn't imply that our more seasoned members should not be involved in ministry. No! On the contrary, we are to collaborate with the younger ones and guide them greener pastures. They are not the future of the church. They are the Now of parish.

We must intensify our evangelization in the neighborhood and beyond. Every baptized parishioner is called by Christ to bring others into the fold. We must sincerely ask ourselves- how many new members have I brought into the church? How many non active members have I called, visited or invited back to the empty pews? I am a big believer that the more folks we have in our parish family, the more resources we can pull from and the more great things we can achieve.

I invite all hands on deck as we write the next chapter of our parish history. Thank you for all have done and the things you will continue to do to uplift this parish that God has gifted us. How good and pleasant will it be, if as sisters and brothers we continue to dwell together in unity and love. I pray that the good work that the Lord had begun in our lives, be brought to fruition. May the joy of the Lord be our strength today, tomorrow and for ages to come.

Ad Multos Annos

REFLECTION FOR THE THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Many make it their life's ambition to determine precisely when the world will end. By reading the signs of the times, consulting scripture, or looking to prophetic predictions that are sometimes centuries old, they claim a certain credibility in being able to do so. Is all that necessary to know? Even when his disciples pointedly ask him this question, Jesus does not directly answer. While the end will inevitably come, Jesus points out that there is a lot we need to do first: remain faithful, face persecution, endure suffering, face wars and insurrections, and give testimony. Human beings tend to focus their energies on the wrong kingdom. Consumed with all of the things we have built and seeking to preserve them, we forget that we belong to a different kingdom, the Kingdom of God.

All of the "stuff" we have constructed will be taken away. All that will remain is God's kingdom. Which kingdom do we prefer? We answer that question by honestly looking at where we invest most of our time and energy. What matters to us as we embrace a new moment or day in our lives? If our relationship with God, the strength and integrity of our souls, and the steadfastness of our character are of utmost importance, then it matters little when the physical end will come. We will have what we need to persevere, endure, and confront whatever comes our way. Jesus cautions that we do not allow ourselves to be overwhelmed or overly terrified by the agonies and disappointments of the world. Although we may be apprehensive and uncertain when faced with complex challenges, God is with us. We will receive the inspiration we need to forge ahead.

God is a God of salvation and new beginnings. Whether we consider the daily unfolding of our earthly lives or our eternal ones to come, God never leaves us with dead ends. There is always hope, and there is always something new to come. As Julian of Norwich reminds us, "God made us, God loves us and God keeps us." This wisdom holds true whether life is stable and profitable or challenging and uncertain. If we remember this simple truth, we will be ready regardless of the day or the hour.
